Dear Friends, preparations for the 50-60 colleagues coming to the co went well. Many helped as we turned our home into a lodge/ conference for a week of meetings. Our Angolan specialty is that the conference is mission agencies and NGOs and Angolan church leaders of all sorts. This fun, fellowship and study of the Bible really promotes a sense of shared among all who attend. Donna and I get to attend though we are the host sometimes things come up which the Tchicombe Team need our help with. I was able to hunt for several days so we could provide game stea dinner. This dinner is often a highlight of the week and some of the pro in to helping our community-game management program.

Then it was time to prepare for this year's Ag Fair in Lubango. Nev moment here! The starter motor on our truck for transporting the cows to pack it in and so we had to scramble to get it fixed. While we were t team down to Windhoek the second farm pickup truck decided to engine...core plug rotten. The first one was still waiting for funds to b rebuild it. It was a tough day. We had also not been able to sell any meat and finances were getting rather tight on the farm. I remember t taking a Sabbath time to rest and bring all these things before the Lorc burdened and could not see the way forward. The next week we had a for meat from a butcher shop that we had never sold to before. Then t day I was talking with one of our MAF colleagues and he gave me an engi with a little work will fix our farm pickup. I felt very keenly the Lord's b provision as we waited on Him to provide.

- Pray for our Angola team as many feel overwhelmed by the challen face.
- Pray for Tchicombe Church that the we who believe will become e reach out to neighbors and also live in community in a way that attrac to Christ and pleases the Lord.
- Pray for an outreach this week to a village about 1.5 hours from Tchi (Wednesday, Aug 22 to Friday, Aug 24) It is the village of a man known for many, many years. There are 60 children in that village TEACHER! Pray for the hearts of the people to hear the Good New a teacher for this village...perhaps a Believer from Tchicombe!

Thank you to all of those who wrote and encouraged me after the last up of you are important to us. God bless!
