Please welcome our guest preacher Rev. Myron Wilkins. Rev. Wilkins is a passionate advocate for the poor and underserved. Formed by his faith, social work training and personal journey through urban poverty, Rev. Wilkins brings a strong vision to Greensboro Urban Ministry where he has served as executive director since June 2015. As an ordained pastor, Wilkins has traveled and spoken extensively, preaching in churches throughout North America.

Our gratitude is extended to Dr. Owen Allen for the challenging and uplifting message given last Sunday!

On Sunday I had the privilege of worshipping at Trinity for the first time in too long. I enjoyed the service very much. The lunch meeting following the service was a delightful time of renewing friendships and meeting some people I have not met before. Please express to the Trinity family my deep gratitude for receiving me as a long distance member and for their prayers for me over the years. I appreciate being part of the congregation and I do pray for you. - Carol Bob (Part of our Covenant Mission Family)

I had a very successful pacemaker surgery. During my two weeks in recovery at home I was blessed with prayers, visits and get well cards, and my wonderful wife took great care of me. We are blessed with a loving and caring church family. I love you all. - Jim Greenway
